

Reaction Rate lab;

You will place samples of four metals into DI water and observe the reaction. You will test the pH before and after the reaction of each and record. Write the overall and net ionic reaction for each reaction.

Discuss how the placement of the four metals on the periodic table correlates to the speed of the reaction you observed. The metals are Na, Ca, Mg, and Fe.